Re: United States v. Donald LaGuardia, 19-CR-893 (LAK)

Dear Judge Kaplan:

SO ORDERED

 LEWIS A. KAPLAN, USDJ

6/9/21

On behalf of Donald LaGuardia, I write to respectfully request a further adjournment of his sentencing hearing, which is scheduled for June 22, 2021. For the reasons set forth below, I intend to seek a three-month adjournment of Mr. LaGuardia's sentencing hearing, which the government opposes, in part because it has insufficient information to evaluate and take a position with respect to that request. I understand and appreciate the government's position in that regard, and believe that both the Court and the government would benefit from more detailed information supporting our request for a three-month adjournment. Nevertheless, given that Mr. LaGuardia's sentencing hearing is scheduled to take place less than two weeks from today, I respectfully request a four-week adjournment of Mr. LaGuardia's sentencing hearing to July 20, 2021 or a date thereafter convenient to the Court.¹ The government does not oppose that request.

A four-week adjournment will enable both the government and the Court to receive additional information relevant to my request for a lengthier adjournment. Furthermore,

¹ I am unavailable to appear on July 22, 2021 because of a sentencing hearing for a client scheduled for that morning in the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey in its courthouse located in Trenton.
